

Press release

For immediate release

The company of Board of Directors of the Montreal Museums continues its humanitarian mission in Montreal City of glass

Montreal, Thursday, September 2, 2010: Board of Directors of the Montreal Museums, proud of the 1 700 pairs used glasses collected for optometrists without borders directors prolongs its collection up to November 26 2010. Sunglasses, with or without prescription eyeglasses for adults or children, all collected glasses clear glasses will be scanned and then distributed by the Agency in its humanitarian missions.

This collection, initiated by the company directors of Montréal museums, is the humanitarian part of its cultural event Montreal city of glass, which offers here the end of the year, all new exhibitions about the theme of the glass.

Participants gathering places. Website: http://www.cityofglassmontreal.org/en/?page_id=11

- Notre-Dame de Montréal Basilica
- Cultural Centre and sports Regina Assumpta
- Historic of the Sisters of Saint Anne
- Cité historia, Museum d'Histoire du Sault - au - Récollet
- Stewart Hall art gallery
- Maison Saint-Gabriel
- Musée d'art contemporain de Montréal
- Museum of Hospitallers
- Marguerite-Bourgeoys Museum
- Society of Montreal Museum Directors
- National Patriots home
- The 4 Antoine Laoun optician boutiques (Downtown, Saint-Léonard, Anjou, Quartier 10-30 Brossard)

Generosity rewarded

Antoine Laoun optician whom collects used glasses for a long time and this year sponsors Montreal City glass, found a beautiful way to thank its clients submitting glasses in one their 4 boutiques. Antoine Laoun offers clients a 30% discount (applicable to frames) to purchase a pair of glasses full including anti-reflection treated glasses. This offer does not apply however on the Prestige show frames (details in store).

- 30 -

Source: Frédérique Guéguen 514 845-6873 Ext. 205 fqueguen@museesmontreal.org www.villedeverre.com